A GLOBAL TASTE OF THE MARKET TOURS

Looking for a unique, personalized group experience?
Join us at the Midtown Global Market in Midtown Minneapolis!

MIDTOWNGLOBALMARKET.ORG

Our public Market is home to more than 35 entrepreneurial, independent stores and restaurants offering unique gifts, services and food from around the world, and all under one roof!

When my family moved to Minnesota, I immediately fell in love with the Market. I loved the energy and the community atmosphere. It was very similar to the bazaars I had known in Iran.

MIDTOWN GLOBAL MARKET

Midtown Global Market is located at 920 East Lake Street in Minneapolis. It is an internationally-themed public market offering groceries, great food, services, and unique gifts.

Midtown Global Market is owned by two non-profit entities: the Cultural Wellness Center and the Neighborhood Development Center, and serves as a small business incubator whose mission is to provide access and opportunity for aspiring entrepreneurs.

Together these entities make up a dynamic community gathering place that highlights the talent, ambition and cultural assets that characterize its neighborhood, contributing to its economic and social fabric.
